To Whom It May Concern

Re: Boyd Martin Construction

I would recommend Boyd Martin Construction. I used Boyd Martin Construction beginning in September 2006 and early 2007 for luxury tenant improvements on my new "gray shell" office space in Las Vegas. The work required utilizing new materials and methods. Boyd's team supervised the project every step of the way ensuring that the project would be done on time and without unnecessary expense. The final product received several awards. Boyd's employees and contractors were very responsible, trustworthy and hard working. I would recommend Boyd Martin Construction to anyone looking for a contractor. If you require any additional information, you may contact me.
